Foster was appointed as the Guardian of the Person and Estate of Bruce K. Foster (page 1 of this calendar). Bruce lived in the home the majority of his life. Kenneth filed a Petition for Order Setting Aside Probate Homestead in this action to allow Bruce to continue to reside in the home until he turns 18. Also during the pendency of this action Petitioner sought instructions from this Court to approve the sale of the real property to petitioner. On 5/15/08, these petitions came before this court for hearing. At the hearing, the Court granted Petitioner's Petition for Instructions and denied the Petition for Order Setting Aside Probate Homestead because the terms of the instructions effectively granted the relief sought by Bruce Foster. Please see additional page	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: Please see related case on page 9. 1. Unfortunately, Petitioner was unable to obtain financing to purchase the Home. Petitioner reported this event to the Court, and on March 26, 2009, this Court entered its Order vacating Prior Instructions; Denying Probate Homestead and Further Instructing Administrator. In this order, the Court denied the probate homestead and further instructed the petitioner to retain the Home as part of the probate estate pending further orders of the Court. Petitioner was further ordered to continue paying any mortgage and maintenance costs and the Court reserved jurisdiction over whether any of these costs would be reimbursed upon the close of the probate. The Order allowed the minor, Bruce to continue to reside in the Home.

Petitioner does not reside in the Home. Following the decedent's death, Petitioner's daughter (and her family) moved into the Home to care for Bruce. Petitioner's daughter's children are close in age to Bruce and they were helpful in assisting Bruce deal with the loss of his mother (grandmother).

Bruce graduated high school this month and plans to attend Fresno City College in the fall. Bruce is currently 17 years old and will not turn 18 until April 4, 2012.

While Bruce may be able to move in with other family members, he has not attempted to find another place to live at this time. The Administrator would like some guidance from the Court on how to proceed in light of Bruce's graduation from High School and the fact that he remains a minor.

The Administrator believes there are two options: (1) proceed as they have for the past 5 years, allowing Bruce to live in the home pending his 18th birthday; or (2) sell the Home, pay the creditor's claim filed by DHS, reimburse Petitioner for sums advanced to protect the estate pending sale of the Home, and to pay costs of administration of the probate estate. Said petition would request that all sums remaining be distributed to the heirs of the decedent, pursuant to the laws of intestacy. Unfortunately, the second option would also require the establishment of a guardianship of the estate of Bruce, as he is still a minor.

Examiner note: Bruce Foster already has a guardianship of his estate. Kenneth Foster was appointed as guardian of the person and estate of Bruce Foster in case number 02CEPR00678 (page 9 of this calendar) on 1/28/08.]

		Suzy Simons, Temporary Guardian, filed declarations.

Atty Smith, Darryl II (Pro Per – Father – Petitioner)

Atty Simons, Suzy (Pro Per – Maternal Grandmother – Temporary Guardian)
Ex Parte Petition for Visitation

Suzy Simons, Temporary Guardian, filed declarations in response. Ms. Simons describes an incident where he was upset after talking with his mother on the phone, and believes from what she has seen and been told that Petitioner sells drugs (prescription drugs and pot). Juju likes that he has his own bed to sleep in and a new home. Since then, he has started preschool and is very happy and excited. Additional declarations describe interactions with the mother, but that she has not received any texts or calls from the father (Petitioner).

Ms. Simons describes interactions with the mother, such as instead of calling to say happy birthday to Juju, “most of the conversation was on Courtney’s end, declaring that she missed him and asking him if he missed her and ‘Don’t you want to be with me?’”

Because Juju mentioned to his mom that he went to Shining Star Preschool, Ms. Simons was concerned that she would go there, and let the school administrators know that the parents were not allowed contact with the child at this time until the hearing.

On her way to Court on 5-18-12 to file papers, Ms. Simons drove near Petitioner's home and saw him leaning into a car. She pulled up and “his eyes were glazed.” The mother's car was also in the driveway.

Minute Order 6-14-12: Visitation between mother, father, and the child is granted in the interim as follows: visitation shall be on Sundays and Mondays or on any other day as may be determined by the guardian. Visitation shall take place at a mutually agreed upon location. The Court orders that mother and father be permitted to visit the child today. Matter continued to 7/12/12.

On 6-25-12, Petitioner filed a Declaration describing visitation since the last court date. Both parents have visited, but she did not allow any overnight visits.

		Petitioner alleges: that the child has been in his care for 17 years, since she was two days old. Petitioner's "significant other," Theresa Lopez, was granted guardianship of the minor on 08/28/1995. Theresa Lopez passed away on 06/24/2012 which left the child without a proper guardian. CPS removed the minor and placed her into foster care. The child was returned to the Petitioner pending repairs to his home and obtaining guardianship.
		Petitioner requests to be excused from serving the mother and the father. Petitioner states that he has never known who the father was and the mother has not been a part of the child's life for the past 17 years. Petitioner has not heard from the mother in years but believes she may be in prison somewhere.
